Hell freezes over! Arctic Gators win Sweeney Bowl

By Bob Kostas

Special to TFL Today

ANCHORAGE — The world's premier independent fantasy football league has come to a close with another dramatic finish in the storied Sweeney Bowl — the championship game of the Times Football League.

The East Hartford Ex-Eskimos came to claim the T'Rex for the second time in the history of the team. It was a different story for the Arctic Gators, who were seeking possession of the fabled championship trophy for the first time — indeed it was the first season the Gators had even posted a winning record.

Chris Reidy, Owner/Coach of the East Hartford Ex-Eskimos, hitched up his championship wagon to a team of workhorses named Ricky Williams and Rich Gannon. Each of the players was having a Pro Bowl season — Williams led the NFL in rushing with 1,853 yards and Gannon led the NFL in passing with 4,689 yards.

Arctic Gators Owner/Coach Mark Dolan didn't have the studs that his opponent had, but he rode in on a horse named Destiny. As the Dec. 12 TFL Today cover story pointed out, Coach Dolan didn't have a single player among the top 16 scorers in the TFL — but as one opponent after another found out, he did have his saddle bags packed full of WhupAss.

The team was experiencing a fairytale season and everybody was talkin about the Arctic Gators. They were a blue-collar team that the fans identified with. While they didn't have any of the top 16 scorers, they did have six players who scored more than 80 points each. Only two other TFL teams came close to that with four players reaching the 80-point mark.

Wide receiver Eric Moulds scored 11 points to help lead the Arctic Gators to their first Sweeney Bowl championship. The Gators had not had a winning season until this year.

That balance worked for the Gators all season as they relegated opposing teams to "also ran" status on their way to an 11-3 record that was the second best in the league and a 684 point total

Power poll

The TFL Power Poll uses a formula that calculates how strong each team is on a weekly basis. It eliminates aberrations (high score, low score) and shows the true expected strength of each team on any given week.

Gators

that was only 13 points behind the leader. The team had three 70-plus points games and it's no wonder everybody was talkin about the Gators as they were having a season that was straight out of a Hollywood screenplay — and the Sweeney Bowl was the final act.

Coach Reidy's confidence in Ricky Williams was well founded as the running back scored a game leading 18 points for East Hartford. However the NFL MVP, Rich Gannon, turned in a season-low performance and only contributed six points to the Ex'mo total.

Once again, the Arctic Gators brought a balanced attack and had four players who averaged 10.5 points each towards the team's final total of 49 — just 5.4 points over their regular season scoring average. The championship game came down to a photo finish with the Ex-Eskimos only six points behind the Gators coming into the last turn with two players to go in the final Sunday night game of the TFL season.

But in the end, destiny was not to be denied. Coach Dolan and his Gators did what they have done throughout the season — they won. Dolan's personnel showed a surprising calm and confidence throughout the championship weekend as the scoring unfolded. Gator consultant Harley Butkik, CEO of the Acme Industrial Whupass Supply Co. was seen strolling the sidelines of Anchorage's Park Strip Field, where the largely pro-Gator crowd was in a frenzied state. Butkik was encouraging the fans and sipping Jack Daniels and he looked as if he didn't have a care in the world.

Harley Butkik had become somewhat of a celebrity this year as his partnership with the team proved fortuitous for both the Gators and the Acme Industrial WhupAss Supply Co. As the Gators became the Cinderella team of the TFL, Acme became the darling of investment analysts throughout the country and the company posted record earnings this year riding on the coat tails of the Gator juggernaut.

"This has been the most exciting and rewarding year of my life and the life of Acme," Butkik said. "I was honored by the confidence Coach Dolan showed in Acme and in me personally and I am just so grateful that we were able to help him achieve his goals and be a part of this magical season.

"I am particularly thankful that Coach Dolan maintained his confidence in us despite some rough moments we had in the season," Butkik added, referring to the Whupass buffet fiasco and the shipping mixup with the Loving Cup Pablum Supply Company — a couple of late season glitches widely reported on by the media covering the legendary Fantasy League — as it turned out, they were only insignificant detours on the way to the TFL Championship.

Dolan fulfilled his promise to his players and his staff as he brought the team to TFL prominence. He fulfilled his promise to the fans and brought the T'Rex home to its rightful resting place atop a mantle in Gator headquarters at No Sun Park. The team has already sold out its season tickets for next year's games and Arctic Gator fans are already talking repeat. Although this exciting TFL season is now over, one factor remains unchanged — everybody is STILL talkin about them Gators.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Coach Dolan was vacationing in Florida immediately after his team's victory and was unavailable for comment, however the Associated Press reported numerous sightings of Dolan cruising throughout the state in a yellow Mustang convertible.
