Nose Apes: Best Season Ever!

By Bo Cephus
NARCOOSSEENOTICE

NARCOOSSEE - The Nose Apes have gone where no other TFL team has gone before -- The Triple Crown.

"We kicked ass," said Nose Ape Genius Owner Wit Tuttell. "You won't see a team like that again."

The boys won the regular season title, the points-scoring championship and then they landed the big one.

Like Secretariat, who should have been listed as the Greatest Athlete of the Century, the Great Apes blew away every competitor and had time to look back at the field on their way to their first Sweeney Bowl title.

Tuttell and Dwight celebrate on the sidelines as the Nose Apes cruise to a Sweeney Bowl victory.

"Simply put, we are great and all the other owners suck," Tuttell said after pounding back another bolt of Patron. "I'm just kidding, only a few of the other owners suck."

Narcoossee, the city that has seen more TFL wins than any other, now has had the pleasure of watching Tuttell orchestrate the best TFL season ever.

It started at the draft where he plucked stars like Marvin Harrison and Germane Crowell after all the other teams had numerous chances at them. He followed that up with cagey waver wire moves garnering studs like Charlie Garner and Duce Staley, and added perfect lineup selections all year long.

"I knew the Curse would get our quarterback injured this year just as usual," Tuttell explained. "So this year I drafted a QB tough enough to play through it. Sure he hurt his NFL team, but he came through for the Apes."

Just about everybody came through for the Apes at some time this year -- especially Sweeney Bowl hero Tim Dwight. Tuttell saved him for the title tilt and he went Apeshit in his first start. Tuttell played the season cooler than a Steeley Dan song. He even managed to get a guy named Fred into the championship lineup. Now that is genius.

Tuttell Wears Genius Label

By Bo Cephus
NARCOOSSEENOTICE

Narcoossee Nose Apes owner and Don Shula-like coach Wit Tuttell downplayed the "G" word that nation media are thrusting upon him.

"This game is really about luck," Tuttell said. "But I'm known for my bad luck, so just think of where we would be if I was lucky."

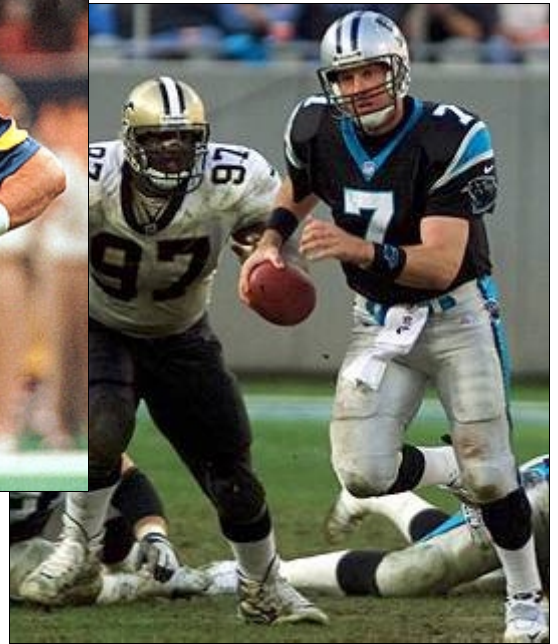

Tuttell has more regular and post-season wins than any other owner in the league's history. He has brought Narcoossee more wins than any other TFL city. Now the Nose Apes have completed the TFL's first triple crown season. Meanwhile, Scott Lacy and Ken Sain were 0-for the millennium.

An uncharacteristic 22 TDs with 23 picks, but came up huge when Nose Apes needed it.

41 TDs, even though Dutch Harbor missed the playoffs, and finished second by 1 point in individual scoring race with 229 points, including the playoffs.

36 TDs, 15 picks, led Denver to Pee Wee title, and, with 81 points in the playoffs, topped Warner 230-229 for individual scoring honors.

Who's Your MVP?

13 rushing and 4 receiving TDs, carried Lancers to Sweeney Bowl. Led running backs with 140 points.

26 TDs, led league in scoring until week 16, led Barons to playoffs. Hookup Marvin Harrison led receivers with 141 points, finished with 12 TDs.

Letter from the Commissioner

To the ladies and gentlemen and children of the Times Football League family, the TFL Today together with Commissioner Katz would like to say a sincere thank you for another great season of fun, competition and good, clean warfare.

Congratulations to Narcoossee Nose Apes owner Wit Tuttell for becoming the first team in league history to have the best record and most points, and win the Sweeney Bowl, in the same year. Tuttell won half the pot. Way to go. First group dinner next year is on you.

Prepare for an excellent convention next year, as the TFL goes back to its birthplace in late August to mark its 10th anniversary.

It is an honor knowing all of you.
