No doubt if you asked Mike Taylor, he'd say the most meaningful aspect of being 2-0 on a wing and a prayer is beating Bagdad

Just beating Bagdad.

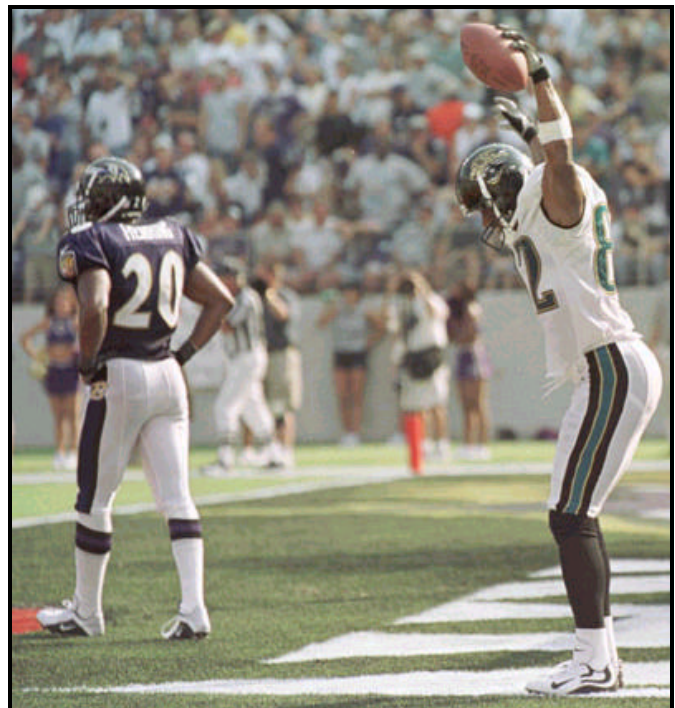

Like Navy, who could go 1-10 but say they had a successful year as long as they beat Army, a victory over Bagdad is the very oxygen that the Denver Pyles breathe.

The score? Oh, it was 48-27, on the strength of Jimmy Smith's Randy Moss impression, with 34 points on three TD receptions.

What it means is that the Pyles lead the TFL with 106 points, after owner Taylor prepared in his usual way for the draft, by picking up a USA Today either on the way to the draft or the day before.

But we're sure they know that before they can play in the same smugness league with Bagdad, they have to pass a survival test that would make Richard Hatch envious.

They are only 2-0. Dugway was 4-0 last year before the Tubes' Vinny-lessness caught up with them, and they went into a tailspin that led to a 5-9 year.

This year's Tubes are 2-0, having won the week's tightest game, 56-54, over Willow.

In the week's other game in which both winner and loser were over 50, Limerick beat Baltimore, 56-51, with Jimmy Smith's best friend Mark Brunell flipping three TDs.

Baltimore was short by one Emmitt Smith TD in the night away.

The TFL records office reported that all seven winning teams for the week scored 40 or more points. The last time all seven winning teams scored 40 points or more was Week 13 of 1995.
