Facing Dutch Harbor a Daunt(e)ing Task

Perhaps the story of the fantasy season so far, Daunte Culpepper returns from a bye week to try to give Dutch Harbor its fifth straight victory

By Pushpin Papoo
TFL Today Correspondent

We know you've probably already screamed at that headline and thought we were nuts for saying anyone other than Kurt Warner is the story of the year.

But anybody can say Warner is. With Warner, what you're getting is what you expected. With Daunte Culpepper, despite his only 43 fantasy points thus far - ranking just seventh - he is delivering the unexpected, leading the Vikings to a 3-0 start and Dutch Harbor to a 4-0 start, going for five against the Baltimore Barons this week.

"We are hoping for some sort of Sports Illustrated cover jinxeroo effect by seeing this picture in the TFL Today," said Baltimore owner Steve Katz, whose team needs it bad, being 1-3.

With Gus Frerotte shooting a blank on Culpepper's bye week last week, the Dawgs still circled East Hartford and did their business, making a 35-33 lead going into Monday night the final margin.

The only other undefeated team, Denver, locks horns (or the cliché of your choice) with a thus far mediocre Lackawanna, after being involved in a riveting comeback win last week. Jimmy Smith carried the day with 19 points after almost being declared legally dead in the first quarter.

Lackawanna scored a franchise-low 11 points in losing to Narcoossee and will be looking to rebound, which may be asking a lot with Kerry Collins at quarterback.
