East Hartford, Alaska Get off the Schneid

Elvis's comeback (no, not that comeback) leads Ex'mos

By Pushpin Papoo
TFL Today

HEBRON, Conn. - We'll forgive Chris Reidy for being too overcome by the shock to properly chronicle his first victory of the season last week.

It didn't just break a 4-game losing streak this season. It snapped an 8-game winless streak dating back to last season, when East Hartford went 0-3-1 down the stretch.

While TFL records have never accounted for streaks compiled over two seasons, the Ex'mos 0-7-1 "run" equals the 8-game winless streak posted by the 1994 Maryland Mania, who started that season 0-7-1 but actually won four of their last six games.

The Ex'mos got it done last week with a comeback, 52-47 victory over Anchorage, on the strength of Elvis Grbac's two touchdown passes on Monday night (pictured).

It was about time Reidy had gotten his money's worth out of a quarterback, after Brett Favre had earned a seat on the bench by sucking for four games. Not just the bench, the unemployment line. The well-chronicled move led to Bagdad pouncing on Favre and benefiting from his first quality game of the year in beating Willow.

Reidy picked up Tim Couch, and although he must now play the Cleveland QB against powerful Narcoossee (with Grbac off), he gets a break in that the Nose Apes are without Kurt Warner. Then again, East Hartford plays without Isaac Bruce.

The other team to break into the win column last week was Alaska, which did it with a 20-point outburst from Steve McNair to beat Limerick.

We look forward to another visit to the win column by each of our newest guests - sometime next year.

Tying for honors of greedy move of the week were Dutch Harbor and Narcoossee. Dutch Harbor, which is 5-0 and had just scored 89 points, tried to pick Travis Prentice back up after dropping him and picking up Shawn Bryson the previous week.

Team Kurt Warner, 4-1 and tied for most points in the league, used a revolving-door approach to injury moves, picking up Garrison Hearst, followed by Jermaine Fazande.

Shoring up your depth through free agency, right, guys?
