Ex'mos Visit Talent Heap, Get Prentice

East Hartford beats out Alaska for Cleveland RB, adds Horn

By Pushpin Papoo
TFL Today

Having set the NCAA career rushing record at Miami of Ohio last year, Travis Prentice conquered a bigger world last week. The TFL.

Prentice's three-touchdown day against the Arizona Cardinals in his first career NFL start - with Errict Rhett out for the year - had several effects. It helped give the Baltimore Barons a 74-33 victory over Anchorage. It pissed off Casey Brogan, as Steve Katz picked up Prentice on a reserve move.

But Katz had to do a little catch-and-release as soon as the Monday night game was over, and that led to another effect. A clamor between East Hartford and Alaska for Mr. Prentice's services (box at right).

Reidy added to his haul by snapping up Joe Horn, whom Bagdad had just released. The Ex'mos this week throw their revamped lineup at a Denver team that has lost two straight after starting 4-0. Look out, Pyles, here comes Travis.

And Reidy's ready. The TFL records office doesn't know if any team has ever won the Sweeney Bowl after being 1-5, but Limerick won in 1996 after starting the season 2-5. With Grbac, Prentice and Horn leading the way, there's no stopping the 'smos now.

Near-photo finish

Here, with or without their permission, are the just-disclosed contents of the t-mails sent to the TFL offices by Chris Reidy and Charles Bingham immediately after the Monday night game ended this week.

Reidy's request:

OK, I'll end the Travis Derby right now. I'd like to claim Mr. Prentice, and I'll cut Priest "Negative Yards" Holmes.

Of course, this is a little like bailing out the Titanic with a teaspoon. But I can't bring myself to completely quit on the season.

Yet

Tue 10/10/00 1:21:11 AM

Bingham's request:

Here is the first salvo fired in the Travis Prentice derby. I waive RB Fred Beasley and pick up Prentice.

Tue 10/10/00 1:23:55 AM

Proving that being rank has its privileges, Reidy won out with his 1-5 record and league-low 191 points, ever so slightly ranker than Bingham. The tiebreakers for being awarded free agents, if both bidding teams have the same record, are:

1. Fewest points scored
2. Most points scored against (Bingham 273, Reidy 253)
3. Time of request. (Bingham missed it by 2:44)
