Week 8
scores

Dutch Harbor	40
Anchorage	38
Bagdad	48
Alaska	25
Baltimore	74
Arctic	40
Denver	56
Narcoossee	43
Flint	56
Willow	42
East Hartford	61
Lackawanna	53
Dugway	59
Limerick	39

Left, Corey Dillon gets the Gatorade treatment after breaking Sweetness's single-game rushing record, despite Narcoossee's loss. Right, it didn't figure in any games, but so many people liked it, we thought we'd show you the hit on Keyshawn Johnson.

Monday night Pyles' magic; Apes, Dawgs in titanic clash

By Pushpin Papoo
TFL Today

For all the good Corey Dillon's explosion did him, we hope Wit Tuttell appreciated it. He apparently kills quarterbacks and heals running backs. He can tell his grandchildren he had the back who broke Walter Payton's single-game rushing record.

The only thing Dillon couldn't do was lead Narcoossee to a win, for two reasons, one of which just had to happen, or Tuttell wouldn't be Tuttell. His quarterback, Kurt Warner, got hurt, after just tossing a single scoring pass in the Apes' loss to Denver.

The other reason was an electrifying Monday night game that saw Lamar Smith rally the Pyles to a victory, not as shocking as the Jets' victory over Miami, but nifty nonetheless. The effect was a secure hold on first place for Denver in the Kotter Division.

Narcoossee dropped to second in the powerful Horshack, where, if Dutch Harbor and Willow both score at least 23 in their games this week, all four divisional teams will be over 400 points.

Narcoossee of course hopes Dutch Harbor scores just that, because the teams lock horns, the result either tying up the divisional lead again or knocking the Apes two games back.

The other contest that the Jets' overtime victory made interesting was East Hartford's win over Lackawanna, in which the Lancers, who definitely don't lack a kicker, came within a couple of Olindo Mare bonus boots of making up a 21-point deficit before losing to the Ex'mos.
